

PEACE RUMORS ARE STRONGER

LORD ROSEBURY'S SPEECH GIVES THEM NEW LIFE.

Preliminary steps to the opening of negotiations between the British and the Boers have been given a new impetus by the speech of Lord Rosebery, which has been eagerly discussed every day by the entire British press, while it has also been the main subject of discussion in all the political clubs and among the general public.

After a week's consideration the prevailing verdict is that the speech has shown Lord Rosebery to be the one man able to head the party, whether the party be composed entirely of Liberals or of a combination of Liberals and Conservatives. It is capable of affording the country an alternative administration to the present one.

From the comparatively few denunciations of the speech as entirely useless, such as the Conservative party, the Standard, has uttered, it is what was expected of a day after the speech was made has been repeated.

There is one chief doubt, which has been expressed widely, namely, whether Lord Rosebery will follow up the speech of a leader by assumption of real leadership. "Boldness, boldness, boldness," is what the Spectator urges, "it is necessary for him to get his former followers in the Lords and Commons, with the chief notable figures in the Liberal party, to accept formally his leadership, thus disposing Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, the present nominal head of the party."

It is not expected that Lord Rosebery will take any such revolutionary step at once, as it would be calculated to make confusion worse confounded in an already disorganized party. There has been evidence during the past week that the speech is doing its work in raising Liberals throughout the country into something like order. Meetings of various Liberal clubs in different quarters have shown that the first step toward the unity of the party has already been taken. This may be described as the institution of a clear line of demarcation between the supporters of Lord Rosebery and the rest of the Liberal-Radical party, instead of the present multitudinous party divisions and subdivisions.

The increase in the strength and circumstantiality of peace rumors, to which reference was made last week, has received a fresh impetus from Lord Rosebery's appeal to the Government to give a willing ear to suggestions for negotiations if such should come from the Boer leaders in Holland. His reference to the possibility of "arranging an accidental meeting" inary to discussion, which occurred before now at a "casual" in, is considered by many to have more behind it than the mere expression of a personal wish. There is an impression that the suggestion was in the nature of a test of public opinion in reference to some such procedure. Preliminary steps in this direction by way of carefully sounding the Boer leaders at the Hague have already been taken quite unofficially and without implicating the Government in any way.

The chief influence which it is believed has been at work with this object in view is that of the English Court, where the anxiety to see peace at any rate within view by the date of the coronation, is probably even keener than in any other circles. The Duchess of Albany, who has been visiting her sister, the Dowager Queen Emma of Holland, is believed to have been the intermediary for this work of sounding the Boer Executive in the Netherlands. Rumors regarding the Boers' attitude have been frequent and contradictory. One of the latest has been contradicted as flatly as it was asserted. It is that they are ready to accept the position of a federal unit in a confederation of South African States analogous to the federation of Australian colonies. It is, however, too early yet to discuss any very definite arrangement, and though the British people grow daily more weary of this inglorious war, their temper is such that any steps toward settlement must be taken with the greatest caution.

PORTO RICO'S ADVANCEMENT.

Gov. Hunt Talks to the People on the Future of the Island.

SAN JUAN, Dec. 21.—A two day festival in honor of the return of Gov. Hunt to the island, which was celebrated with a display of fireworks last night, was followed by a grand ball to celebrate the Governor's return. Yesterday afternoon a committee of representative citizens tendered a banquet to the Governor and over 100 persons attended.

Gov. Hunt, in reply to a toast, made a long speech, in which he stated that he believed Congress would pass a bill giving favorable tariff duties to Porto Rico. He thought President Roosevelt was wise in recommending some of these tariffs, but he added that there would be no relations with Cuba which would allow discrimination in favor of that island to the detriment of Porto Rico.

Gov. Hunt also stated that he believed that the United States would be able to secure the island for the United States. He stated that the United States would be able to secure the island for the United States. He stated that the United States would be able to secure the island for the United States.

Gov. Hunt also stated that he believed that the United States would be able to secure the island for the United States. He stated that the United States would be able to secure the island for the United States. He stated that the United States would be able to secure the island for the United States.

Gov. Hunt also stated that he believed that the United States would be able to secure the island for the United States. He stated that the United States would be able to secure the island for the United States. He stated that the United States would be able to secure the island for the United States.

Gov. Hunt also stated that he believed that the United States would be able to secure the island for the United States. He stated that the United States would be able to secure the island for the United States. He stated that the United States would be able to secure the island for the United States.

Gov. Hunt also stated that he believed that the United States would be able to secure the island for the United States. He stated that the United States would be able to secure the island for the United States. He stated that the United States would be able to secure the island for the United States.

Gov. Hunt also stated that he believed that the United States would be able to secure the island for the United States. He stated that the United States would be able to secure the island for the United States. He stated that the United States would be able to secure the island for the United States.

EARL'S GAMBLING SYSTEM.

Recently Has Fair Success at Ostend and Is Now Going to Monte Carlo.

LONDON, Dec. 21.—The Earl of Roslyn, as was announced some time ago, asserts that he has invented a system by which he can break the bank at Monte Carlo or anywhere else. He has invited his friends to subscribe the necessary funds to enable them all to get rich. The friends, it appears, are displaying considerable caution and the Earl's philanthropy is now extended to anybody with money. It is open to anybody in fact to enter the syndicate for a period of three months or more.

The Earl acquired a capital of about $100,000 and with this he went to Ostend, where he had a fair amount of success. He actually broke the bank at the Kursaal once and has just left Ostend with about $1,000 to the good after paying all expenses. This has had some effect and money is coming in now quite freely.

The Earl is now in London and is about to proceed to Monte Carlo. By the terms of the syndicate's articles of association he will receive 50 per cent. of the profits after his personal expenses are paid. He thus stands to enjoy himself anyhow so long as the money lasts.

MISS GRACE NOW A COUNTESS.

Niece of the Former Mayor of New York Weds the Earl of Donoughmore.

LONDON, Dec. 21.—The Earl of Donoughmore, who was married at St. Michael's Church, Chester Square, London, this afternoon to Elena Grace, daughter of Michael P. Grace and niece of William H. Grace, ex-Mayor of New York. The Rev. Canon Fleming, sub-dean of the Chapel Royal, a leading Church of England clergyman, officiated.

The bride is the second oldest of the four daughters of Michael P. Grace. The fact that the wedding took place in a Protestant church is not to cause much surprise among the friends of ex-Mayor William H. Grace, who is known to be a devout Catholic. Mrs. Michael P. Grace, however, is a Protestant, and although her husband nominally is a member of the Catholic Church, all the daughters have been brought up in their mother's faith.

The bride is the second oldest of the four daughters of Michael P. Grace. The fact that the wedding took place in a Protestant church is not to cause much surprise among the friends of ex-Mayor William H. Grace, who is known to be a devout Catholic. Mrs. Michael P. Grace, however, is a Protestant, and although her husband nominally is a member of the Catholic Church, all the daughters have been brought up in their mother's faith.

ANARCHIST WENT FROM HERE.

Caleagno Got Into Unchallenged, but Arrived Later in Rome.

ROME, Dec. 21.—The police here have arrested a notorious Anarchist of the name of Caleagno, who has just arrived from the United States. He has been sentenced several times for Anarchist crimes and some months ago was sent into forced domestic exile to the island of Ponza, a quiet little spot from which he escaped. Soon afterward he made his way to New York.

His audacious action in venturing to return to Italy alarmed the police, who took it for granted that he was bent on some desperate enterprise. The only document found upon him was a list of addresses, which was apparently a copy of one he had left in New York to enable his friends to communicate with him.

The disquieting point is that Caleagno managed to enter Italy unchallenged. He was comfortably lodged in Rome when he was recognized by a detective in whose hands he had been on several occasions.

DISCOVERY AT POMPEII.

Roman Villa Uncovered and Many Art Objects Found.

LONDON, Dec. 21.—Another important discovery has been made at Pompeii, the same spot where was recently found what was believed to be the mummified body of the elder Pliny.

It consists of a small Roman villa, one room of which is filled with objects of Greek and Roman art. These include a bronze statue representing genius with a torch in its extended right hand, the whole also four or five beautiful Etruscan vases and models of various descriptions. Seven other rooms were found to be full of cereals and other food stuffs.

Further exploration of this particular corner of Pompeii is expected to yield rich results.

ETON BOYS HERE BETTING.

Secret Discovered When a House Master Got a Check From a Bookmaker.

LONDON, Dec. 21.—The schoolboys at Eton have been forbidden to purchase newspapers in the streets. The order, which was issued by the school authorities, was prompted by the discovery that the boys were betting extensively on horse races by correspondence and bought the afternoon papers merely to see the winners and watch the betting.

The masters had noticed an eager rush for papers, and when inquiries were made as to what was interesting the boys, the answer was that it was football or cricket matches.

One house master, however, who happened to have the same name as one of his pupils, received in even a check from a bookmaker and circulars from betting agents and tipsters, with the above result.

MISS DE BARS SENTENCE.

Maintenance Expended to the London Press.

LONDON, Dec. 21.—The majority of the morning and evening newspapers published in London are in the hands of the De Bars family. After a long and bitter struggle, the De Bars family has been successful in securing the maintenance of the London Press.

The De Bars family has been successful in securing the maintenance of the London Press. The De Bars family has been successful in securing the maintenance of the London Press. The De Bars family has been successful in securing the maintenance of the London Press.

The De Bars family has been successful in securing the maintenance of the London Press. The De Bars family has been successful in securing the maintenance of the London Press. The De Bars family has been successful in securing the maintenance of the London Press.

The De Bars family has been successful in securing the maintenance of the London Press. The De Bars family has been successful in securing the maintenance of the London Press. The De Bars family has been successful in securing the maintenance of the London Press.

The De Bars family has been successful in securing the maintenance of the London Press. The De Bars family has been successful in securing the maintenance of the London Press. The De Bars family has been successful in securing the maintenance of the London Press.

WOLSELEY HITS WAR OFFICE.

Former Commander-in-Chief Writes His Memoirs.

Indictment of Civilian Control of the Office the Main Purpose of the Book—The Boer War. Lord Roberts Will Resign After the Coronation Probably True.

LONDON, Dec. 21.—Field Marshal Lord Wolseley, late Commander-in-Chief of the British Army, has been occupied during the past year in writing his memoirs, which he has now completed. The Morning Post understands that he dwells with special emphasis on the period of five years, ending last year, when he was Commander-in-Chief, and that his book will, in the main, be an indictment of civilian control in the War Office. Before he became Commander-in-Chief Lord Wolseley wrote a preface to Col. Henderson's "Life of Stonewall Jackson," in which he made remarks to the same effect. His recent speeches in the House of Lords had to be toned down on account of his official position, but the Morning Post is informed that he now speaks his mind freely, illustrating his views from instances of his personal career.

This will only be one more item in the many troubles of the War Office. The rumor current during the week that Lord Roberts, who has just completed his fifty years of official service, would resign as Commander-in-Chief after the coronation, has not been contradicted. Lord Roberts merely says that he never notices in any way anonymous statements. The report is, however, generally regarded as probably correct. Lord Roberts is now showing signs of age and the permanent officials of the War Office consider the accumulation of unsettled matters in the office to which he does not give sufficient attention.

There is no doubt that the permanent high officials in the War Office would welcome the Duke of Connaught as Commander-in-Chief, if only for the protection which little more than two years ago gave them from much of the strong personal criticism which must be freely vented on any other holder.

SCALABRINI OBJECTS.

Doesn't Want to Come Here as Successor to Mr. Martinielli.

ROME, Dec. 21.—M. Scalabrini, who has been practically selected by the Pope to succeed Mr. Martinielli as head of the Holy Father's mission in Washington, has begged the Holy Father to excuse him from such promotion on the double ground of age and disinclination for a diplomatic career, for which he feels that he has no qualifications. Those who know the brilliant prelate say that in this he is too modest. They regard him as eminently fitted for diplomacy, and although he is 61 years of age, he looks little more than forty. He has, moreover, the mental and physical vigor of a young man.

If he should insist on refusing to go to Washington it would be difficult for the Pope to find another man in Europe so adequately qualified for the place, more particularly in regard to two points which are considered imperative, a thorough knowledge of the English language and a full acquaintance and sympathy with modern thought. It is suggested that the Pope will look to Canada for a successor to Mr. Martinielli, after all, as Archbishop Falconio possesses all the qualities needed.

NO LIQUOR TO CHILDREN.

Most of the London Saloonkeepers Will Not Seek to Evade the Law.

LONDON, Dec. 21.—A recent act of Parliament forbids saloonkeepers from serving children under 14 with intoxicating liquors either for consumption on the premises or for the purpose of taking it home to their parents. This particular section of the law is known as the "Cork and Seal" clause, permitting the serving of jugs of beer for the latter purpose if the vessels used are corked and sealed.

This apparently has offered a loophole for many saloonkeepers, who keep in supply corks and mullage paper to avoid penalties. But the majority of London saloonkeepers, after consideration, have decided not to take advantage of this and have agreed to provide no more of the corked and sealed jugs. Mr. Mahon was arrested for a serious assault and was held in the Eton street police court by Magistrate O'Reilly.

UGANDA RAILWAY OPEN.

First Locomotive Reaches Port Florence on Victoria Nyanza.

LONDON, Dec. 21.—A despatch from Mombasa, East Africa, states that the first locomotive for the new Uganda Railroad reached Port Florence, the terminus of the line, on Victoria Nyanza yesterday. It was a 40-ton locomotive, built by the Works on the railroad was commenced in 1900.

AMERICAN GIRL WEDS BRITISH OFFICER.

Special Cable Dispatch to The Sun.

LONDON, Dec. 21.—The daughter of a Lieutenant of the British Royal Artillery was married in London this morning to Miss Hilda Everett, daughter of Mrs. Sydney Everett of Boston, Mass., and Shumkin, Isle of Wight.

TRAIN HITS STREET CAR, KILLING FOUR PERSONS.

Special Cable Dispatch to The Sun.

LONDON, Dec. 21.—The train which was derailed into a train car filled with passengers at a level crossing today. Four persons were killed and twenty injured.

MARCONI CHANGES HIS PLANS.

Going to Ottawa to Confer With Dominion Authorities.

OTTAWA, Dec. 21.—Signor Marconi made a sudden change in his plans this morning. He had intended to go to Ottawa to confer with the Dominion Government authorities there in regard to a system for wireless telegraph communication.

Mr. Fitching, the Canadian Minister of Finance, and a member of the House of Commons, who was in Ottawa yesterday, had been invited to the Marconi office in London to confer with him in regard to the proposed system.

Mr. Fitching, the Canadian Minister of Finance, and a member of the House of Commons, who was in Ottawa yesterday, had been invited to the Marconi office in London to confer with him in regard to the proposed system.

Mr. Fitching, the Canadian Minister of Finance, and a member of the House of Commons, who was in Ottawa yesterday, had been invited to the Marconi office in London to confer with him in regard to the proposed system.

Mr. Fitching, the Canadian Minister of Finance, and a member of the House of Commons, who was in Ottawa yesterday, had been invited to the Marconi office in London to confer with him in regard to the proposed system.

Mr. Fitching, the Canadian Minister of Finance, and a member of the House of Commons, who was in Ottawa yesterday, had been invited to the Marconi office in London to confer with him in regard to the proposed system.

Mr. Fitching, the Canadian Minister of Finance, and a member of the House of Commons, who was in Ottawa yesterday, had been invited to the Marconi office in London to confer with him in regard to the proposed system.

FOUR LINERS IN TOGETHER.

Campania, Philadelphia, La Savoie and Puget Sound Had Good Trips.

Burials revealed yesterday, the most impressive fleet of liners ever seen in Quarantine, including the French steamship La Savoie, the Cunarder Campana, the American liner Philadelphia and the Puget Sound. The Campana was six hours in wireless communication with the Nantucket lightship, flashing her last message through the air when Nantucket was 187 miles astern.

La Savoie, which is also fitted with the Marconi apparatus, and was for hours in the "sphere of influence" of the British liner. The Campana was six hours in wireless communication with the Nantucket lightship, flashing her last message through the air when Nantucket was 187 miles astern.

La Savoie, which is also fitted with the Marconi apparatus, and was for hours in the "sphere of influence" of the British liner. The Campana was six hours in wireless communication with the Nantucket lightship, flashing her last message through the air when Nantucket was 187 miles astern.

La Savoie, which is also fitted with the Marconi apparatus, and was for hours in the "sphere of influence" of the British liner. The Campana was six hours in wireless communication with the Nantucket lightship, flashing her last message through the air when Nantucket was 187 miles astern.

La Savoie, which is also fitted with the Marconi apparatus, and was for hours in the "sphere of influence" of the British liner. The Campana was six hours in wireless communication with the Nantucket lightship, flashing her last message through the air when Nantucket was 187 miles astern.

STONY WOLD SANATORIUM.

Site for the Institution in Which Many Society People Are Interested.

STONY FALLS, N. Y., Dec. 21.—Lots Nos. 265, 266, 267, 268 and 269 of Township Ten, of the old military tract in Franklin county, have been purchased by the Stony Wold Sanatorium, a site for the establishment of this sanatorium is one in which many well-known society people in New York are interested, and has for its object the furnishing of a temporary home for dependent young women who are threatened with pulmonary diseases. Among the persons interested are Mrs. Helen Gould, Mrs. Shirley, Mrs. Charles G. Kerley, Mrs. Henry McVay Bull, Mrs. James G. McLaughlin, Mrs. Florence S. McLaughlin, Mrs. H. Seymour, Mrs. George C. Steadman, Mrs. Mary, Mrs. Edwin Gould, Mrs. Henry M. Schrafft, Mrs. John C. Eno, Mrs. Edson and many others.

The property was purchased from Arthur G. Leonard and Benton Turner of Pittsburg, a nonprofit of this building is to be used for the establishment of this sanatorium. The property owned by him. The tract is about 1,000 acres in extent and includes a small body of water well known for its beauty.

CLEANED OUT THE SALOON.

Thomas McMahon of Greenpoint Shoots Two Men in That Place.

THOMAS McMahon of 70 Box street, Greenpoint, shot and killed two men in a saloon in Franklin street on Friday night and raised a disturbance. He was ordered out and drawing a revolver he threatened to shoot everybody in the place. He was disarmed and put out, but he returned with another revolver and opened fire on the men in the place. The saloon was cleaned out and the men were taken to St. Jerome's Hospital. They were seriously hurt and McMahon was arrested for a serious assault and was held in the Eton street police court by Magistrate O'Reilly.

TOUGHER PICTURE RESIN CHURCH.

Chicago Preacher Says He Is Going In for "Art for Art's Sake."

CHICAGO, Dec. 21.—"Art for Art's Sake" is the motto of the picture painter of the First Congregational Church, the Rev. W. A. Bartlett, and to promulgate this theory he is going to distribute from every Sunday to his parishioners half-tone engravings of "The Mother and Child," "The Fisherman," and other famous "Bible Types of Women," which will form the basis for a series of sermons on the subject.

"Why not combine art with the gospel as well as music?" said Dr. Bartlett. "They certainly are as much allied, and the Bible is a greater picture gallery than Blake's, and the only way to make a correct religious picture is to take the Bible as the basis for the picture." The pictures are to be distributed to the parishioners for a series of sermons on the subject.

"Why not combine art with the gospel as well as music?" said Dr. Bartlett. "They certainly are as much allied, and the Bible is a greater picture gallery than Blake's, and the only way to make a correct religious picture is to take the Bible as the basis for the picture." The pictures are to be distributed to the parishioners for a series of sermons on the subject.

"Why not combine art with the gospel as well as music?" said Dr. Bartlett. "They certainly are as much allied, and the Bible is a greater picture gallery than Blake's, and the only way to make a correct religious picture is to take the Bible as the basis for the picture." The pictures are to be distributed to the parishioners for a series of sermons on the subject.

"Why not combine art with the gospel as well as music?" said Dr. Bartlett. "They certainly are as much allied, and the Bible is a greater picture gallery than Blake's, and the only way to make a correct religious picture is to take the Bible as the basis for the picture." The pictures are to be distributed to the parishioners for a series of sermons on the subject.

"Why not combine art with the gospel as well as music?" said Dr. Bartlett. "They certainly are as much allied, and the Bible is a greater picture gallery than Blake's, and the only way to make a correct religious picture is to take the Bible as the basis for the picture." The pictures are to be distributed to the parishioners for a series of sermons on the subject.

"Why not combine art with the gospel as well as music?" said Dr. Bartlett. "They certainly are as much allied, and the Bible is a greater picture gallery than Blake's, and the only way to make a correct religious picture is to take the Bible as the basis for the picture." The pictures are to be distributed to the parishioners for a series of sermons on the subject.

"Why not combine art with the gospel as well as music?" said Dr. Bartlett. "They certainly are as much allied, and the Bible is a greater picture gallery than Blake's, and the only way to make a correct religious picture is to take the Bible as the basis for the picture." The pictures are to be distributed to the parishioners for a series of sermons on the subject.

"Why not combine art with the gospel as well as music?" said Dr. Bartlett. "They certainly are as much allied, and the Bible is a greater picture gallery than Blake's, and the only way to make a correct religious picture is to take the Bible as the basis for the picture." The pictures are to be distributed to the parishioners for a series of sermons on the subject.

"Why not combine art with the gospel as well as music?" said Dr. Bartlett. "They certainly are as much allied, and the Bible is a greater picture gallery than Blake's, and the only way to make a correct religious picture is to take the Bible as the basis for the picture." The pictures are to be distributed to the parishioners for a series of sermons on the subject.

"Why not combine art with the gospel as well as music?" said Dr. Bartlett. "They certainly are as much allied, and the Bible is a greater picture gallery than Blake's, and the only way to make a correct religious picture is to take the Bible as the basis for the picture." The pictures are to be distributed to the parishioners for a series of sermons on the subject.

"Why not combine art with the gospel as well as music?" said Dr. Bartlett. "They certainly are as much allied, and the Bible is a greater picture gallery than Blake's, and the only way to make a correct religious picture is to take the Bible as the basis for the picture." The pictures are to be distributed to the parishioners for a series of sermons on the subject.

"Why not combine art with the gospel as well as music?" said Dr. Bartlett. "They certainly are as much allied, and the Bible is a greater picture gallery than Blake's, and the only way to make a correct religious picture is to take the Bible as the basis for the picture." The pictures are to be distributed to the parishioners for a series of sermons on the subject.

WHAT END OF COPPER WAR?

AMALGAMATED BELIEVED TO BE BEST INTRENCHED.

Cut to 12 Cents Expected, Which Will Give the Independent Companies Their Hands Full Paying Guarantees on Past Sales—Amalgamated Stock Quiet.

In the copper trade another reduction in the price of the metal, bringing it to 12 cents a pound, is expected, and is expected to come to-morrow. This cut, should it be made, will be the fourth since the interests connected with the Amalgamated Copper Company abandoned their policy of holding the price at 17 cents. The matter is getting to be a very serious one for the independent copper interests, which have sold big lots of copper for forward delivery upon a guarantee to the buyers against the price being reduced in the meantime. It means the drawing of checks for rebates to the consumers by all these interests, and as copper tumbles further more rebates will have to be paid, cutting into the surplus accounts of the companies and eating up dividend possibilities.

What some men in Wall Street believe was merely a foretaste of what may happen if the war in the trade continues to the bitter end occurred in the Boston stock market on Friday, when the high-priced copper mining shares of the dividend-paying class tumbled in a semi-panic, led by Calumet and Hecla which fell $55 a share. Yesterday these stocks rallied somewhat.

As pointed out in THE SUN of Sunday last the Amalgamated interests seem to have played a very sharp game while it appeared that they were going to "hold the umbrella" for the trade indefinitely. They were willing to give an understanding with all interests to maintain 17 cent copper. Such an understanding was arrived at with the foreign producers of copper, but the Amalgamated interests observed that the independent producers here were not maintaining the price, but were underselling with guarantees while the umbrella was being held up.

Then the Amalgamated people themselves stepped in and sold at a slight concession 500,000 to 1,000,000 pounds of copper at 17 cents a pound. The market completely fell to the independent interests. The next step was the dropping of the price by the Amalgamated people and then the host of the independents when they discovered that the rebate act had replaced the umbrella act on the boards. They will have to satisfy low copper a lot of it. As for the Amalgamated people, copper that they have guaranteed they will pay the rebate on, but there are no two opinions as to which interest is on the winning side.

As for the Amalgamated people, copper that they have guaranteed they will pay the rebate on, but there are no two opinions as to which interest is on the winning side. As for the Amalgamated people, copper that they have guaranteed they will pay the rebate on, but there are no two opinions as to which interest is on the winning side.

As for the Amalgamated people, copper that they have guaranteed they will pay the rebate on, but there are no two opinions as to which interest is on the winning side. As for the Amalgamated people, copper that they have guaranteed they will pay the rebate on, but there are no two opinions as to which interest is on the winning side.

As for the Amalgamated people, copper that they have guaranteed they will pay the rebate on, but there are no two opinions as to which interest is on the winning side. As for the Amalgamated people, copper that they have guaranteed they will pay the rebate on, but there are no two opinions as to which interest is on the winning side.

As for the Amalgamated people, copper that they have guaranteed they will pay the rebate on, but there are no two opinions as to which interest is on the winning side. As for the Amalgamated people, copper that they have guaranteed they will pay the rebate on, but there are no two opinions as to which interest is on the winning side.

As for the Amalgamated people, copper that they have guaranteed they will pay the rebate on, but there are no two opinions as to which interest is on the winning side. As for the Amalgamated people, copper that they have guaranteed they will pay the rebate on, but there are no two opinions as to which interest is on the winning side.

As for the Amalgamated people, copper that they have guaranteed they will pay the rebate on, but there are no two opinions as to which interest is on the winning side. As for the Amalgamated people, copper that they have guaranteed they will pay the rebate on, but there are no two opinions as to which interest is on the winning side.

As for the Amalgamated people, copper that they have guaranteed they will pay the rebate on, but there are no two opinions as to which interest is on the winning side. As for the Amalgamated people, copper that they have guaranteed they will pay the rebate on, but there are no two opinions as to which interest is on the winning side.

As for the Amalgamated people, copper that they have guaranteed they will pay the rebate on, but there are no two opinions as to which interest is on the winning side. As for the Amalgamated people, copper that they have guaranteed they will pay the rebate on, but there are no two opinions as to which interest is on the winning side.

As for the Amalgamated people, copper that they have guaranteed they will pay the rebate on, but there are no two opinions as to which interest is on the winning side. As for the Amalgamated people, copper that they have guaranteed they will pay the rebate on, but there are no two opinions as to which interest is on the winning side.

As for the Amalgamated people, copper that they have guaranteed they will pay the rebate on, but there are no two opinions as to which interest is on the winning side. As for the Amalgamated people, copper that they have guaranteed they will pay the rebate on, but there are no two opinions as to which interest is on the winning side.

As for the Amalgamated people, copper that they have guaranteed they will pay the rebate on, but there are no two opinions as to which interest is on the winning side. As for the Amalgamated people, copper that they have guaranteed they will pay the rebate on, but there are no two opinions as to which interest is on the winning side.

As for the Amalgamated people, copper that they have guaranteed they will pay the rebate on, but there are no two opinions as to which interest is on the winning side. As for the Amalgamated people, copper that they have guaranteed they will pay the rebate on, but there are no two opinions as to which interest is on the winning side.

As for the Amalgamated people, copper that they have guaranteed they will pay the rebate on, but there are no two opinions as to which interest is on the winning side. As for the Amalgamated people, copper that they have guaranteed they will pay the rebate on, but there are no two opinions as to which interest is on the winning side.

As for the Amalgamated people, copper that they have guaranteed they will pay the rebate on, but there are no two opinions as to which interest is on the winning side. As for the Amalgamated people, copper that they have guaranteed they will pay the rebate on, but there are no two opinions as to which interest is on the winning side.

As for the Amalgamated people, copper that they have guaranteed they will pay the rebate on, but there are no two opinions as to which interest is on the winning side. As for the Amalgamated people, copper that they have guaranteed they will pay the rebate on, but there are no two opinions as to which interest is